

Lenten Lecture Series

Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle

VOICES OF CATHOLIC SPIRITUALITY

This year's Lenten Lecture Series highlights a select few of the great saints and mystics of our rich Catholic heritage. Each talk focuses on a particular spiritual tradition and the ways in which it calls and speaks to us today.

Our Lenten Lecture Series continues this week with a talk on

MEISTER ECKHART

(c. 1260-c. 1327; German theologian, philosopher, and mystic)

Join us Wednesday, March 6 or Thursday, March 7.

Our speaker is

Br. Albert Duggan, OP

(Transitional Deacon, Dominican House of Studies).

Since 2011, Br. Albert Duggan, OP has been assisting with liturgical ministries at St. Matthew's Cathedral. He also co-facilitates a discussion group for the parents of children in St. Matthew's religious education program. Originally from suburban Detroit, he graduated from Brown University in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in biomedical ethics. He worked as a research coordinator in the Bioethics Institute at Johns Hopkins University before entering the Dominican Order in 2007. He is currently enrolled in theological studies at the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception at the Dominican House of Studies. He will be ordained to the priesthood in May.
