

Lenten Lecture Series

Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle

VOICES OF CATHOLIC SPIRITUALITY

This year's Lenten Lecture Series highlights a select few of the great saints and mystics of our rich Catholic heritage. Each talk focuses on a particular spiritual tradition and the ways in which it calls and speaks to us today.

Our Lenten Lecture Series concludes this week with talks on

ST. TERESA OF AVILA (1515-1582; Doctor of the Church)

Join us Wednesday, March 20.

Our speaker is Dr. Kathleen H. Brown

(Acting Associate Director, Doctor of Ministry Program, Virginia Theological Seminary).

Kathleen H. Brown holds a D.Min. from Catholic University of America and an M.A. in Pastoral Studies from Washington Theological Union. She also holds a master's degree in economics and completed coursework for a doctorate in economics from Georgetown University. Prior to her current position at Virginia Theological Seminary, Dr. Brown was Dean of Students and Director of Formation for Lay Ministry at WTU. She also has served as the regional director of the DeSales Spirituality Center in Washington DC.

AND

JULIAN OF NORWICH (1342-1416; Mystic and Writer)

Join us Thursday, March 21.

Our speaker is Dr. Julia A. Lamm

(Associate Professor, Department of Theology, Georgetown University).

Julia A. Lamm received her B.A. in History and in Philosophy from The College of St. Catherine, and her A.M. in Religious Studies and Ph.D. in Theology from the University of Chicago. She has been on the faculty at Georgetown University since 1989. She works in the history of Christian thought, specializing in the doctrine of God, grace, and mysticism. She is author of The Living God: Schleiermacher's Theological Appropriation of Spinoza and is editor of The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Christian Mysticism. She is currently writing three other books: Julian of Norwich on Revelation and Grace; Schleiermacher's Plato: The Construction of a New Platonism; and Forms of Grace in the Western Christian Tradition.
