Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle

VATICAN II: CELEBRATING 50 YEARS

Pope Benedict XVI has declared that a Year of Faith will begin October 11, 2012 and conclude November 24, 2013, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Universal King. The first day of the Year of Faith is the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council. This year's Fall Lecture Series will focus on the important documents and themes of this important council in the life of our Church.

Our Fall Lecture Series continues this week:

ON LITURGY: 50 YEARS OF SACROSANCTUM CONCILIUM

(Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy)

Join us Wednesday, October 10 or Thursday, October 11

Our speaker is
Ms. Anne Y. Koester, JD, MA (Georgetown University;
author, Sunday Mass: Our Role and Why It Matters)

Anne Koester is an adjunct member of the Theology Department at Georgetown University, teaching courses in the areas of Catholic liturgy and worship as well as Christian initiation. She is a native of Ohio, where she attended Bowling Green State University (BS, Education) and the University of Toledo College of Law (Doctor of Jurisprudence). She practiced as a trial lawyer in Toledo for ten years, primarily in the areas of products liability and complex tort litigation, before deciding to pursue theology studies at St. John's University (MA, Theology), Collegeville, MN. She worked for two years at the University of Notre Dame and then moved to the DC area to accept the position of Associate Director of the Georgetown Center for Liturgy. In addition to teaching, she currently serves as Georgetown's Director of Off-Campus Student Life.
