

Fall Lecture Series

Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH

As the Year of Faith continues, St. Matthew's annual Fall Lecture Series will focus on the articles of the Nicene Creed, the faith we profess at Mass on Sundays.
*What do the words of the Nicene Creed mean?
What do the truths expressed in these words mean for how we live our lives?*

Our Fall Lecture Series begins this week:

THE HISTORY OF THE CREED

Join us Wednesday, October 2 or Thursday, October 3

Our speaker is

Rev. Berard Marthaler, OFM Conv

(author, The Creed: The Apostolic Faith in Contemporary Theology).

Conventual Franciscan Friar Berard Marthaler is a retired professor of religion and religious education at The Catholic University of America. He earned a doctorate in sacred theology from the Seraphicum in Rome and a doctorate in philosophy from the University of Minnesota. In addition to his classic book, The Creed: The Apostolic Faith in Contemporary Theology, he is also the author of numerous articles appearing in such publications as Ecumenical Trends, National Catholic Reporter, America, Commonweal, Horizons, and St. Anthony Messenger. He currently is in residence at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church in the Brookland neighborhood of Washington, DC.

Wednesday lecture: 12:45pm to 1:45pm

Thursday lecture: 7pm to 8pm

Both lectures will be held in the North Conference Room.

Follow the directional signs to the lectures.

Lectures are free and open to the public.

No RSVP necessary.
