

Fall Lecture Series

Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH

As the Year of Faith continues, St. Matthew's annual Fall Lecture Series will focus on the articles of the Nicene Creed, the faith we profess at Mass on Sundays.
What do the words of the Nicene Creed mean?
What do the truths expressed in these words mean for how we live our lives?

Our Fall Lecture Series continues this week with a talk on the first article of the Creed:

GOD THE FATHER

Join us Wednesday, October 9 or Thursday, October 10

Our speaker is

Ms. Sara Blauvelt, MA

(Director, Office for Catechesis, Archdiocese of Washington).

Sara Blauvelt is the Director for Catechesis for the Archdiocese of Washington. She earned a MA in Catechesis/Religious Education from the Catholic University of America. Passionate about parish ministry, she has been a parish catechist or catechetical leader for the past 20 years and enjoys the challenges and blessings of helping children and adults deepen their relationship with Christ.

Wednesday lecture: 12:45pm to 1:45pm

Thursday lecture: 7pm to 8pm

Both lectures will be held in the North Conference Room.

Follow the directional signs to the lectures.

Lectures are free and open to the public.

No RSVP necessary.
