

Fall Lecture Series

Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH

As the Year of Faith continues, St. Matthew's annual Fall Lecture Series will focus on the articles of the Nicene Creed, the faith we profess at Mass on Sundays.
What do the words of the Nicene Creed mean?
What do the truths expressed in these words mean for how we live our lives?

Our Fall Lecture Series continues this week with a talk on the third article of the Creed:

THE HOLY SPIRIT

Join us Wednesday, October 23 or Thursday, October 24

Our speaker is

Rev. Kevin Nadolski, OSFS

(Director, Development and Communications, Wilmington-Philadelphia Province, Oblates of St. Francis de Sales).

Father Kevin Nadolski, OSFS is the director of development and communications for the East Coast province of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales. A noted public speaker and retreat leader, he has served as vocation director for his order as well as principal of Bishop Ireton High School in Alexandria, Virginia. He holds a Master of Divinity degree from DeSales School of Theology, a Master of Arts degree in Education Administration from The Catholic University of America, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism from Temple University. A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Father Nadolski was ordained a priest in 1997.

Wednesday lecture: 12:45pm to 1:45pm

Thursday lecture: 7pm to 8pm

Both lectures will be held in the North Conference Room.

Follow the directional signs to the lectures.

Lectures are free and open to the public.
